

POOR SEEKING A MYSTERIOUS MURDERER

Slain Man's Body Discovered in a Vacant Lot in Jersey City.

While hundreds of Greeks and Syrians and other foreigners visited the Morgue in Jersey City to-day and yesterday in an effort to identify the man who was murdered some time before 6 o'clock yesterday morning in the vacant lot in between First street and Germania avenue, near the Hudson Boulevard, the police are as far from a solution of the mystery as they were when the body was found.

The body was found yesterday by two railroad men, Arthur Underhill and Charles C. Downes. It was lying on the face with a dozen cuts in the back and the back of the head. The body was found in the vacant lot in between First street and Germania avenue, near the Hudson Boulevard, the police are as far from a solution of the mystery as they were when the body was found.

The men hastened for a policeman, who summoned a doctor. As soon as Dr. Converse saw the wounds he gave his opinion that it was a Mafia killing. While it was sufficient to have caused death, the victim had been struck twice and again.

SAY POLLEEV MEN ARE NEGLIGENT

Employees of Southfield Electric Railway, Staten Island. Accused of Gross Carelessness
—Many Accidents Result.

At the South Beach terminal of the Staten Island Rapid Transit Railroad, in the town of Southfield, is the Southfield Electric Railway Company. It runs from South Beach to Midland Beach and is owned and operated by the Richmond Light and Railroad Company, of which H. H. Rogers, the Standard Oil magnate, is president.

Its rolling stock consists of two cars, one of which the company runs to suit itself through the week and both come on Sundays. The distance is not more than a mile, for which a fare of five cents is charged.

In the summer of 1929 and after the trolley line between Manhattan and Brighton beaches was started the Richmond Light and Railroad Company came to the conclusion that a trolley line between Midland and South Beach would prove as profitable as the Brighton Beach line. Application was at once made to the Board of Aldermen for a franchise, which was granted.

When the company started to lay its tracks it was met by some of the property owners, who refused to allow them to cross their property.

The Railroad Company took the matter into the courts and after a legal fight which lasted several months won out. The road was completed in the early part of the summer of 1930.

The public were given a fairly good service then and the line was well patronized. Since the first season the line has never been on a paying basis and at the present time it is a financial burden on the company's hands. The motormen and conductors employed on the line are the poorest kind of salaries and many of the men are incompetent. It is a common occurrence to see the motorman, after he starts his car from either terminal, to go back to the rear where the conductor is standing, and smoke a cigarette. As a result of this negligence on the part of the employees there have been several accidents, the latest occurring on Saturday morning, when Charles Thomas, twenty-three years old, of East One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street, near Third Avenue, was run down and killed.

When Motorman Charles Helzer was assigned before Magistrate Marsh at Stapleton on a charge of homicide he said that Thomas was sitting on one of the sleepers, with both legs across the track, and that he did not see him until it was too late to stop his car and prevent running over him.

Thomas Helzer seems absurd to people who have traveled back and forth over the rails, as for some distance the tracks are elevated from the ground, especially where the man was killed, and it seems almost impossible that the motorman was attending to his business, that he could have failed to see Thomas in time to prevent his car running over him.

TRAMP AND WIFE BURIED
UNDER PILE OF LUMBER.

Trying to Dodge Police, Man Dis-lodges Boards—He and Wife an Badly Hurt.

Police men were ordered to-day to clean out the tramps along the spur of the New York Central Railroad North River from Twentieth to Thirtieth street.

When the police came upon the tramps there were several hundreds of them in all. They scamped in every direction, hiding in every conceivable place. On top of a high pile of lumber were two scores of more hardened bobs who were snoring.

One of the policemen climbed up the side of the lumber pile and rained his club violently. The tramps began jumping from the lumber, and all had reached the ground and made off except one woman and a man. The man finally sprang from the lumber pile. He shook it so violently that it came over curving down with him and the woman. Both were buried under the heavy boards for half an hour before the police could rescue them. Then they were found to be un- known.

The man was Edward Jordan and the woman his wife, Bridget, who stuck by him when he had a good job with the Pennsylvania Railroad, and who sticks by him now that he has turned tramp. Jordan and his wife were taken to Roosevelt Hospital. Both had received many cuts about the head and body, and it is possible that both are internally injured.
